

2004-05 schedule DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

University at Buffalo The State University of New York

Department of Computer Science and Engineering

Thursday ,
October 14, 2004

Ruzena Bajcsy
Berkeley

"CITRIS: Accomplishments,
New Opportunities and Challenges"*

Thursday ,
October 28, 2004

Manuel Blum
Carnegie Mellon

"Toward the Design of a Conscious
Self-Aware
Free-Willed Robot"*

Friday,
November 5, 2004

Larry Smarr
UC San Diego

"The OptiPuter:
A Science Driven
LambdaGrid"

Friday, April 8, 2005

David Farber
UPenn

"The Impact of the Real All-
Optical Networks on Future
Computer/Software Systems"

Images shown at left relate to the above speakers' research projects.

University at Buffalo • Department of Computer Science and Engineering
Inquires welcome at cse-dept@cse.buffalo.edu

716-645-3180 • www.cse.buffalo.edu • open to the public • free admission

All talks to be held at the University at Buffalo
330 Student Union
from 3:30-4:30 pm

*These two lectures are part of the Presidential Innuagural Program.

CELEBRATING the INAUGURATION of the 14TH PRESIDENT

We would like to thank the folowing sponsors:

