

Things to do in class today

- Pick up papers
- Exam 4 – please feel free to look at answer key and check grading for exam
- If problems with Exam 4, let me know before you leave

Things to do until Grades are final

- Check email for updates on lab grades and overall course grades
- Check posted grades on UBLearn
- Report problems/issues/concerns ASAP so they can be addressed

A final note

- You will probably be receiving a number of email updates over the next few days. Please read the emails so you understand what grading is taking place.
- Grades are not final until an email actually says they are final. The emails will tell you when grades will be submitted to the university. This will probably not happen until on or around May 10th.
