

How to Succeed in CSE111?

Contacting the Professor:

Helene Kershner, Assistant Chair, CSE

Phone number: 716-645-3180

Email: kershner@cse.buffalo.edu OR kershner@buffalo.edu

The Web Site:

Website: <http://www.cse.buffalo.edu/~kershner/>

Then click on the link to CSE111 Web Site

Everything you need to know should appear on the website.

Periodically you will receive email to your buffalo.edu account reminding you of important events, changes in the schedule, hints on what to study for exams etc.

Copies of these emails will also appear under announcements.

UBlearns will ONLY be used to post grades. The accumulated points listed in UBlearns is NOT used to determine your grade. See the syllabus for how your grade will be determined!

You cannot contact me through UBlearns nor can you find the web page there.

Web Site Contents:

- Lecture
- Projects
- Email Address for Instructor and TAs
- Lecture Schedule
- Office Hours
- Academic Integrity
- Announcements
- Course Description – Syllabus & Grading

Check the website daily. New material and announcements will be made almost daily.

HELP I'm Lost! What to do if you are getting lost in CSE 111

- Read the website!
- Talk to the instructor.
- Talk to the TAs
- Come to lots of office hours
- Make an appointment with the professor or TAs for extra help

If you believe that coming to office hours is a sign of weakness or immaturity, THINK AGAIN!

Office hours are a way for you to get extra help/tutoring for FREE

Every time you attend office hours you improve not only your knowledge of the material but positively impact your final grade.

I keep a record of who comes to office hours and use that when making up final grades.
