

Release Agreement “CG Week Talk”

concerning rights of use (copyright, image and voice)

As the author of my talk and owner of my personal rights (right to picture and voice) I

Name : _____

University/institution/company: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

hereby grant the Department of Computer Science and Engineering, University at Buffalo, the State University of New York the permission to record my talk.

Event: Computational Geometry Week 2021 Date: _____

including slides and/or presentations, process and store the recording, and distribute it in different formats and channels via gather town, buffalo.zoom.us, <https://cse.buffalo.edu/socg21/>, and/or Zoom Cloud and private YouTube channel. Any other form of publication requires a separate agreement.

I am responsible for the content of the talk. I certify that I am entitled to use all documents, texts and images. Where this is not the case, I certify that I use third party materials in accordance with quotation right and reference the sources with due diligence. Hence, I warrant that the documents that I present do not infringe any third party rights.

I agree that the recording of my presentation will be archived and remains accessible under the terms agreed. The video will be removed from <https://cse.buffalo.edu/socg21/>, the private YouTube channel, and the Zoom Cloud about one week after the conference ends. The removal does not encompass copies already made by third parties during the time of the publication.

Date

Signature of speaker