INCREASE IN FIRE INSURANCE RATES HERE UNJUSTIFIED, SAYS MAYOR CARLSON IN STATEMENT

Declares that Jamestown is entitled to Decrease instead of Increase and Repairs to Criteria of System Whereby Farmers Have Been Assigned to Police Duties.

The order issued by the New York State fire marshal's office provides for insurance rates in the new district here to be increased from rates per $100, which is said to be made on the theory that the fire department has been impaired by assigning the farmhouse to police duties, in punishment and, instead of an increase, President declared in a public address held today. statements were made concerning the conditions of the city of Jamestown and vicinity.
