The play from which this story were written will be at the Samson Emergency House Friday, October 8th.

SYNOPSIS

Artie Grayson has been assigned the task of persuading his employer, Mr. Martin, to part with $150 which his employer, Mr. Martin, has been saving for a year's end. Martin, however, is too busy with his family, Henry, and Susan, to notice. Martin is told that the money is needed to purchase a new silver tray for their dinner party. Martin, thoughοverjoyed, is told that the money will be returned within a year. This news plunges Mr. Martin into despair.

Meanwhile, Rodney Peale has learned that he has been awarded a contract to make soap for Mr. Martin's company. Rodney, however, is forced to sign a contract that gives Mr. Martin complete control over the company. Rodney, though angry, is forced to sign the contract.

Finally, Marien Martin has been called to the office to discuss the contract. Marien, though angry, is forced to sign the contract.

In the end, Mr. Martin has been convinced to part with the money, and Rodney Peale has been awarded the contract to make soap.

The MECCA cigarettes made in a year, placed end to end, would go three times around the earth.

Quality is the sole reason for the enormous demand for MECCA, that makes this wonderful Turkish Blend cigarette the largest selling brand in America.
